THE ANNUAL CEREMONY OF THE CHEESES

We were delighted to be invited to attend the Ceremony of the Cheeses, held at the Royal Hospital Chelsea in December where we donated 30kg of our own award winning cave aged Cheddar

Guests of honour, tango stars Vincent Simone and Flavia Cacace, danced with the Chelsea Pensioners in celebration of the food that has fed the forces for centuries.

The ceremony dates back to 1692 when a local cheesemonger agreed to provide war veterans at the hospital with their festive supply of cheese.

To mark the WW1 centenary, cheesemakers like ourselves from around the UK provided the Chelsea Pensioners with cheeses that have been made in Britain for more than 100 years as well as more modern varieties. The Dairy Council has organised the ceremony for the past 50 years.

Vincent and Flavia danced with several Pensioners in the historic Great Hall at the Royal Hospital to the music of the Household Division Welsh Guards.

The dancing stars, who have appeared many times on Strictly Come Dancing, are currently appearing in their own West End show, "Dance 'til Dawn".

"It was quite an unusual and humbling experience to be able to meet and talk to the Chelsea Pensioners." Said Lyndon. "Apparently one of the many benefits of wearing the striking red jackets is that, as a mark of respect, London Cabbies will take them anywhere they want to go, free of charge."

YOUR RECIPES PLEASE

If you have any old family recipes using chicken, beef, lamb or just vegetables we'd love to see them and maybe try them out. Please drop in with a copy or email to: recipes@hanleyfarmshop.co.uk

NEW TO THE TEAM

A big welcome to Karl Williams who has recently joined us as a senior member of our butchery team.

Chatting with Vincent and Flavia, Maria and Lyndon were able to brush up on their dancing moves.

Wishing you a Happy, Healthy and Prosperous New Year.

Kind regards,

Lyndon, Maria, Harriet & our award winning team
