CHILDS PLAY

Feeding calves really is child's play, as proved by our very own 11-year-old Lily. With over 90 calves born on the farm over the last 2 months we think she's got her work cut out! "It's a fun job." She says.

CHRISTMAS MARKETS

This year our Christmas Markets will be bigger and better than ever before.

Both will be held in a huge all-weather, heated marquee, so we're expecting a good turnout, whatever the weather.

The markets are going to be a veritable showcase of interesting and unique local handmade crafts,

MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING

Thank you so much for all of your support on Friday 30th September. Our amazing cakes table raised over £216 at our Macmillan coffee morning event.

food and produce, so whether you're a small local business or just like making things at home we'd love you to have a stall this year.

For details please email harriet@hanleyfarmshop.co.uk

Make a note of the dates in your diary for Saturday 26th and Sunday 27th November, 10am - 4pm

NEW GOLF DRIVING RANGE

We're delighted to announce that our brand new Golf Driving Range will be opening in the Spring next year. Run by local Chepstow Golf Professional, Liam Bond, the facilities will include an indoor golf simulator room and, of course, lessons from the man himself.

HALLOWEEN PUMPKINS

Our pumpkins are growing in the fields.

It's going to be a bumper crop this year with all sorts of shapes and sizes. They'll soon be on sale in the shop, well in time for Halloween.

EXTRA HOUR IN BED

British Summer Time ends at the last weekend in October so when you go to bed on Saturday 29th October don't forget to put your clock back by an hour.

Did you know that this is actually the 100th anniversary of putting the clocks back in the UK!

Kind regards,

Lyndon, Maria, Harriet & our award winning team
